Treasures of Morocco, 2022 ~ 19 days/17 nights

This tour gives you the opportunity to explore and take with you the unforgettable memories of the country, beautifully located at the meeting point of Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea, home to the world famous, incredible Sahara desert and its oases, the Atlas mountains and its settlements, the imperial cities renowned for their Moorish architecture, fascinating and romantic coastal towns, as well as charming bazaars and friendly people.

Day 1 ~ Depart the USA

Day 2 ~ Casablanca

Upon your arrival in Casablanca, at Mohammed V airport, after going through the passport and security formalities, you will be met and transferred to the hotel in downtown Casablanca. Overnight in Casablanca. /Palace Anfa, www.lepalacedanfa.com

Day 3 ~ Chefchaouen

We will head to Rabat, the administrative capital and one of the four imperial cities; other three are Fes, Marrakech, and Meknes. We will walk through the imperial quarter to see beautiful gardens and many interesting Moorish royal buildings, including the Royal Palace. We will drive by impressive necropolis going back to the Roman times and visit the complex of Hassan Tower and Mosque, as well as the famous Mohammed V Mausoleum, the masterpiece of modern architecture in Morocco. We will end our sightseeing with the visit to the walled village, so called Oudaya Kasbah overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. Our final destination is Chefchaouen.

Day 4 ~ Chefchaouen

Chefchaouen is certainly one of Morocco's most delightful spots. The blue and white town appears at a turn on the road, with its two-story houses and round roof tiles, as well as twenty odd mosques and sanctuaries. The holy town of Chefchaouen breathes an atmosphere of profound serenity. It is a delight to stroll through these cobblestone streets and idly dream in a peaceful, shaded square as you sip your coffee in a Moorish café! The old city is one of the loveliest in Morocco, it would be a shame to visit this charming city in a rush; it needs to be experienced and enjoyed. If time permits and you wish to visit, there is a lovely fishing village north of Chefchaouen called Oued Laou as an option. Overnight in Chefchaouen /Dar Chaouen, www.darechchaouen.com

Day 5 ~ Fes

Our final destination today is Fes with some stops on the way. First we will reach Volubilis, site of the most important and extensive Roman ruins in Morocco, which was annexed by Rome in 45 AD. Next we will head to Meknes, another one of the four imperial cities, famous for its beautiful gates. We will visit the palace of the ancient Ismailian rulers and Royal Granaries, and Museum Dar Jamai. In the evening we will arrive in Fes for overnight /Riad Arabesque, www.riadarabesque.com

Day 6 ~ Fes

Fes is the spiritual and cultural center of the country; besides being the most prestigious of all imperial cities, it also is the first founded one in Morocco's history. We will drive to the citadel for a magnificent panoramic view of the old and new city followed by fascinating Tanneries. Our next stop is Mellah, Jewish quarter with Jewish Cemetery and Synagogue.

Overnight in Fes. /Riad Arabesque, www.riadarabesque.com

Day 7 ~ Fes

We will be exploring this world-famous, fascinating ancient city (medieval Medina) with its over a million alleys, number of madrassas, mausoleums, residential and handicraft quarters. In the old city of Fes we will visit Kairaouine Mosque built in 859 which probably is the most spiritual mosque in Morocco, followed by Medersa Bou Inania, Medersa el-Attarine, Nejjarine Museum of Wood & Art Craft, Dar Batha Mueseum and Belghazi Museum.

Overnight in Fes. /Riad Arabesque, www.riadarabesque.com

Day 8 ~ Erfoud

Today we will have one of the most interesting and scenic drives through the Atlas Mountains. We will pass by the Berber villages and towns to see their pasture animals and colorful costumes. We will make a short stop to enjoy Ifran which is an Alpine little town in the middle of cedar trees. Our next stop is Midelt, which is famous for its fossils and local Berber handicrafts. Next we will continue to drive along Ziz River and its oasis where more than a million date palm trees are growing. Our final destination is Erfoud, the capital of dates in Morocco.

Overnight in Arfoud. /Xaluca Dades, www.xaluca.com

Day 9 ~ Merzouga-Desert

We will visit the souk in Erfoud before we drive with 4WD to spend the entire day in the Sahara taking a camel ride to the desert camp, climbing the sand dunes for a spectacular sunset. Afterwards we will have a special dinner with local entertainment. We will overnight in tents to experience a beautiful sunrise over the sand dunes in the morning, and then go back to civilization.

Overnight in Merzouga. /Night under tent bivouac Ali El Cojo

Day 10 ~ Boumalen Dates

After breakfast we will ride a camel back to Merzouga to join our 4WD vehicle for Rissani, a former major caravan center which remains most important commercial hub in the region up to this day; its extensive souk is noted for leather and goat skin trade. While in Rissani, we will see the mausoleum of Moulay Ali ash-Sherif, the ancestor of the Alaouite dynasty which still rules today. Passing through Tinejdad we will stop at Todgha Gorge for a spectacular view and continue to Dades Gorge, one of the highlights in south Morocco. At both Gorges we have the option to walk as much as we want or just view the spectacular natural wonders created by water over millenniums, we'll pass numerous Berber villages on the way, so we could stop in any of those villages to experience Berber life, maybe we'll visit their local markets.

Overnight in Boumalen Dates /Xaluca Dades, www.xaluca.com

Day 11 ~ Quarzazate

From Boumalen we'll leave for Ouarzazate through Kelaa Mgona, famous for its roses and the Skoura palm grove where we'll visit the beautiful Kasbah Amridil & Kasbah Taourirt. Quarzazate area is a noted film-making location, with Morocco's biggest studios inviting many international companies to work here. Films such as Lawrence of Arabia (1962), The Living Daylights (1987), The Last Temptation of Christ (1988), The Mummy (1999), Gladiator (2000), Kingdom of Heaven (2005), Kundun (1997), Legionnaire (1998), Hanna (2011), and Salmon Fishing in the Yemen (2011) were shot here. We will have the tour including a beautifully walled city called Kasbah and cinema museum. Overnight in Quarzazate. /Ksar Ighnda, www.ksar.ighnda.net

Day 12 ~ Imlil

On the way to Imlil we will visit Kasbah Ait Benhaddou, the most spectacular fortified city in Morocco, which was an important stop along the former caravan route between the Sahara and Marrakech. Via Taddert village we'll take Tizi n'Tichka mountain pass (6,800 ft) offering a wonderful view of the Atlas range. We will arrive in Imlil at an altitude of 1,700meters (5,577ft) which is a spectacular spot for mountain climbers.

Overnight in Imlil. /Kasbah du Toubkal, www.kasbahdutoubkal.com

Day 13 ~ Marrakech

In the morning we'll explore the beautiful village of Imlil on foot, which offers spectacular view of the surrounding Atlas Mountains. In the evening we'll arrive in Marrakech for overnight.

Overnight in Marrakech /Essadi Garden, www.essaadi.com

Day 14 ~ Marrakech

Marrakech, the second oldest imperial city and definitely the "Pearl of the South", was founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century. Marrakech is home to the most famous square in Morocco- the Jemaa el-Fna Square, mosques, madrassas, palaces and gardens.

We will start our sightseeing with perhaps the most entertaining place in all Morocco, Jemaa el-Fna Square where the magicians train cobras, besides many other fascinating things happening as you walk through.

Next we will tour medina- the old city offers many interesting shops and craftsmen's diverse creations. We'll stop at Koutoubia Mosque which has 210ft tall minaret, visible from miles away, and also visit Ali ben Youssef Mosque and Madrassa.
